

GRAIG M. SCHULTZ

SENIOR COUNSEL

Super Lawyers[®]

RISING STARS 2017

Graig M. Schultz specializes in civil litigation, and regularly counsels businesses and individuals in matters involving breach of contract, labor and employment, professional liability, breach of warranty, and fraud matters. He has represented clients in the manufacturing, financial services, healthcare, technology, real estate, food and beverage, and insurance industries. Graig routinely represents clients before state and federal courts, as well as the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, and is certified to represent individuals before the Board of Veterans Appeals.

Graig maintains an AV Preeminent[®] Peer Review Rating by Martindale-Hubbell[®]. For four years in a row (2014-2017), he has been listed by Pennsylvania Super Lawyers Rising Stars, a distinction reserved for no more than 2.5% of young attorneys in Pennsylvania. In 2015, Graig was also recognized in The Legal Intelligencer's Lawyers on the Fast Track, an honor recognizing young attorneys across Pennsylvania for the work they are doing to help shape the legal profession. Additionally, in 2015, Graig was recognized as one of the Lehigh Valley's "Forty Under 40" business professionals by Lehigh Valley Business. This recognition is given to young professionals under the age of forty who exhibit professional excellence and a commitment to their community.

Graig currently serves as the Case Editor for the Lehigh Law Journal and as a court-appointed arbitrator in Lehigh County. In 2014, he was appointed by Mayor Robert Donchez to the City of Bethlehem's Human Relations Commission, and currently serves as the Commission's Vice Chair. In addition, Graig is a member of the Muhlenberg College Board of Associates and the Lehigh Valley Health Network Board of Associates.
