

KIMBERLY G. KRUPKA

PARTNER

Kimberly G. Krupka is a focused litigator, representing individuals and businesses before Pennsylvania State and Federal courts, as well as administrative agencies and local municipalities. As a member of the Medical Malpractice Defense group, she represents medical professionals and large hospitals and health networks in patient care matters and has extensive experience working with in-house Risk Managers and insurance personnel to efficiently investigate claims. Kimberly likewise routinely represents corporations and individuals in a comprehensive range of civil litigation issues, ranging from negligence actions to contractual employment disputes.

Kimberly also routinely represents public utilities before the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania.

In addition to her courtroom work, Kimberly assists small businesses and large corporations in contract drafting, negotiation, and review, with specific experience in computer software licensing agreements, security and IT contracts, and employment agreements.

In 2019, Kimberly graduated from the Anne B. Anstine Excellence in Public Service Series, an annual professional leadership program.
