RISING STARS 2019

Samuel E. Cohen focuses his practice on commercial litigation and business disputes. He regularly counsels individuals, small businesses, and large corporations on transactions, employment matters, product warranties, and zoning disputes. Sam currently serves as Assistant Solicitor to Lehigh County.

He has litigated matters on behalf of businesses across a wide variety of industries including construction, banking, retail, real estate, media and publishing, and health care. He also pursues civil litigation matters on behalf of individuals and business clients in the area of debt collections, and assists businesses with partnership and corporate formations.

Sam has successfully litigated claims founded in breach of contract, employment discrimination, and premise liability defense, to name a few.

Sam is experienced in appellate briefing and also devotes a portion of his practice to serving as local counsel in cases involving parties based in outside regions. Following law school and prior to joining Gross McGinley, Sam served as judicial clerk to the Honorable Ronald L. Buchwalter in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Sam was selected for inclusion in the 2014-2019 Pennsylvania Super Lawyers Rising Stars lists, a distinction reserved for no more than 2.5% of young attorneys in Pennsylvania. In 2019, he was honored as one of Lehigh Valley Business's Forty Under 40, an award recognizing young professionals who are making an impact within their companies and in the business community. Sam also was named one of the Lehigh Valley's "Finest Under Forty" by the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Northeastern Pennsylvania in 2013.
