

SARAH M. MURRAY

PARTNER

Sarah M. Murray is a business-minded attorney focused in the areas of corporate law, contracts and agreements, real estate and municipal law. Sarah currently serves as the Solicitor to Lehigh County as well as Assistant Solicitor to Whitehall Township.

As an MBA scholar, Sarah approaches the law from a business perspective, counseling commercial clients on the law and how it impacts their business. She has worked with clients in a variety of industries including real estate, banking, contracts, business formation, and municipal law. Sarah also has experience with asset purchases and buying and selling businesses.

Sarah also has extensive knowledge in commercial and residential real estate transactions and land development. She is equipped to handle land use and zoning matters and formerly sat as the Assistant Solicitor for a zoning hearing board.

33 South Seventh Street, PO Box 4060
Allentown, PA 18105-4060

✉ SMurray@GrossMcGinley.com

☎ (484) 224-2795

Areas of Practice

Business Law
Municipal Law
Real Estate Law

Admissions

Pennsylvania
U.S. District Court
Eastern District of Pennsylvania

Education

Pennsylvania State University,
J.D., M.B.A., 2006
Tulane University, B.S. in Management, magna cum laude, 2003

Professional Associations

Lehigh County, Solicitor
Pennsylvania Bar Association, Member
Bar Association of Lehigh County, Board of Directors - President,
Finance Committee Co-Chair,
Young Lawyers' Division, Board
Liaison and Former Chair
Lehigh County Paralegal Association,
Board Liaison and Attorney Advisor

Community Involvement

Cetronia Ambulance Corps,
Board of Trustees
Miracle League of the Lehigh Valley, Coach and Volunteer, former member of Board of Directors