

H. ROSS RAMALEY

ASSOCIATE

In his daily practice, Ross Ramaley helps businesses of all types and sizes to grow and achieve their goals. His attention to detail and commitment to thoroughly understanding a client's business allows him to provide effective solutions tailored to each client. Ross's prior experience in the litigation arena affords him the experience to provide litigation avoidance counseling to his business clients, so they can focus on their business, rather than the courtroom.

As a member of the firm's Business Services Group, Ross assists banking, non-profit, technology, advertising, and commercial real estate clients with general corporate matters in addition to business formations, entrepreneurial ventures, mergers and acquisitions, trademarks, and contract review. His thoroughness and creativity make him a unique and valuable asset to the firm's business law team.

Prior to joining Gross McGinley, Ross worked for a law firm in West Chester, PA.
