

ROBERT M. CAMPBELL

ASSOCIATE

Robert M. Campbell, a member of the firm's Medical Malpractice Defense Group, represents health care providers in patient care matters. His ability to analyze and understand complex issues enables him to advocate for his clients and prepare them for trial.

A PR professional and up-and-coming litigator, Bob is skilled at crafting words and thoughts into well-structured narratives, backed up with citations and evidence. He helps communicate his clients' stories in a compelling manner.

Prior to joining Gross McGinley, Bob worked at Willman & Silvaggio, LLP in Pittsburgh, focusing on asbestos litigation and defense of manufacturers and suppliers of products used in the steelmaking industry. His courtroom and defense-attorney experience is transferable as he assists fellow medical malpractice defense attorneys in working with risk management teams to investigate claims and handle complex matters of law and medicine.
